This matter came on for consideration of the Receiver's Seventh Motion to Pay Administrative Expenses incurred during the month of October 2011. The Court has reviewed the Receiver's Motion and the attached itemized bills. The Court has also reviewed the Receiver's Status Reports. It appears that the expenses included in this motion are reasonable and necessary for the implementation of this Court's Orders.

Therefore, for good cause shown, the Receiver's Seventh Motion to Pay Administrative Expenses is found well-taken and is hereby granted. The Receiver is hereby ordered to pay the bills of Shultz, Huber & Associates, George Green and Cooper & Walinski for the amounts stated in the motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
