Defendants.)

This matter came on for consideration of the Receiver's Fourth Motion to Pay Administrative Expenses incurred during the month of July. The Court has reviewed the Receiver's Motion and the itemized bills that were attached. It appears that the expenses included in this motion are reasonable and necessary for the implementation of this Court's Order.

Therefore, for good cause shown, the motion of the Receiver to pay administrative expenses is found well-taken and is hereby granted. The Receiver is hereby ordered to pay the bills of Schultz Huber & Associates, Veid & Veid, George Green, and Cooper & Walinski for the amounts stated in the motion.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Honorable James E. Barber
